About the Residential Community

Situated in the southwest corner of the SF State campus, the SF State residential community offers conference organizers the convenience of having two conference centers, a dining center, market store, and housing for 2500 guests in one central area.

The residential community can accommodate guests in traditional residence halls, Jr. suites, apartment style living, and townhouses. All housing accommodations reside in the heart of the residential community right on campus.

The facilities within the community are wired for Ethernet access and WiFi which are complimentary for all guests and visitors. Stop by the front desk of each building for access codes and passwords.

Front Desk

The community desks are staffed by knowledgeable Residential Services Assistants (RSAs). They can also assist with information regarding the University and local area. Throughout the summer, the Towers at Centennial Square desk operates 24 hours a day and other community front desks will have limited hours of operation posted on the window of the lobby front desks for your convenience.

Mail Services

Mail is delivered Monday through Saturday, except for Postal Services holidays, to Towers at Centennial Square (TCS).

The nearest U.S. mailbox is on Font Boulevard between Mary Park and Mary Ward Halls. Pick up times are located on the mailbox.

Linens and Cleaning

Linens are provided only to conference groups who purchased them in advance.

- A standard linen packet is left on each bed (beds are not made in advance)
- Guests are provided a blanket, pillow, mattress pad, comforter, bed linen (two sheets and pillow case), two bath towels, and soap
- Groups staying 7 days or longer can have their towels and linens exchanged once a week at a pre-arranged day/time
